★ The Boy Who Cried Wolf: Shepherd-boy Sam is tired of watching sheep all day, and wants some excitement in his life. One day, he decides to shake things up by yelling "Help - a wolf!" just for fun. The villagers come running, but discover that Sam has pulled the wool over their eyes. Is telling the truth all it's cracked up to be? And what will happen when a wolf really does appear?

★ The Frog Prince: Princess Honey has to find a miracle in order to save the ranch from the clutches of the awful land-grabber, Duke. Instead she finds a very large frog. The frog offers to help - but only in exchange for a promise. Will Princess Honey decide to keep her promise to a big green frog, or will she throw him back into the pond and see if he floats?

★ A Little Mermaid: Walking and talking underwater aren't easy for a little mermaid who dreams of dancing. Can she find a way to trade in her tail for legs or is she just blowing bubbles? In this original StoryBook Theater version of Hans Christian Anderson's classic, the audience will decide whether the Little Mermaid should keep her legs or high-tail it back to the sea.

Payment in full or P.O. is due approx. 45 days prior to show opening.

Schedules are flexible, and we add performance days and times as our shows fill. If you are unable to attend any of the shows on our schedule, please call so that we may try to accommodate your needs.

Special Needs assistance is available. Please notify us if your group requires hearing or vision accommodations, wheelchairs or walkers. ASL interpreted performances are available on weekends only at the Kirkland Performance Center. See website for showtimes.

Partial Scholarships are available upon request for public schools that have an overall student body population of at least 40% enrolled in the Federal Free & Reduced Lunch Program. Call for details.

Free Educator's Curriculum Guides are available online. Visit us at www.StoryBookTheater.org. The guide contains activities and exercises that are carefully developed to meet Washington State EALR's.
